David John Griffin's stunning new novella will delight his fans. Insanity or fantasy? Fact or fiction? The only given is, it all starts and ends with two dogs at The One Dog Inn.

Dogs are reported for their constant barking ... and so begins one of the strangest stories you will ever read. Audrey Ackerman, sent to visit the dogs at a 17th century coach house, is unsettled by paranormal sightings. Stella Bridgeport - manager at The Animal Welfare Union - communicates with Audrey via emails. And those Stella receives are as startling as they are incredible: descriptions of extraordinary events concerning a science fiction writer's journal; giant swans; bizarre android receptionist; and a ghost dog.

- "This novella is uniquely written, with the mysterious plot revealed through a series of email conversations between two characters. The storyline keeps you intrigued throughout. Highly recommended." PETER DRAPER, author
- Also includes 12 original short stories with aspects of the macabre, the surreal, science fiction or the strangeness of magical realism
- David is the author of the magical realism novels The Unusual Possession of Alastair Stubb and Infinite Rooms

David John Griffin is a writer, graphic designer and app designer, and lives in a small town by the Thames in Kent, UK with his wife Susan and two dogs called Bullseye and Jimbo.
