• Link pictures with action words as Dog and his human and animal chums have fun all day.

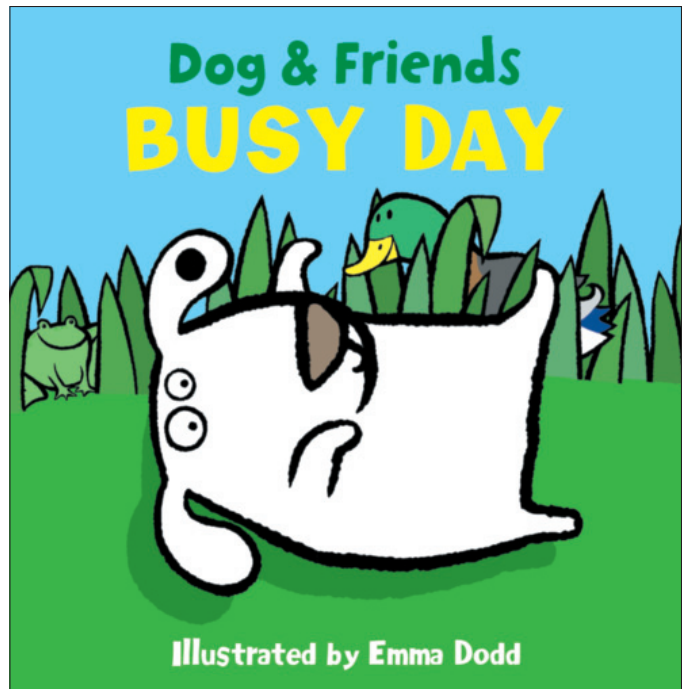

• Dog has been having such an exciting day: talking to Horse, playing chase with Cat, rolling in the mud with the pigs, diving into the pond with the ducks, having a bath... and finally falling asleep!

• Illustrates lots of key 'doing' words, including waking, running, swimming and eating.

• Ideal for reading aloud to small children, or for more confident readers to enjoy by themselves.

• With endearing pictures by Emma Dodd, this sturdy volume has been carefully planned to help little ones make the important connection between words and their meanings.

About the Illustrator: Emma Dodd comes from a family of artists, and she has been illustrating books for twenty years. Her credits include the award-winning I Love My Mummy (Booktrust Early Years Awards 2010) and Cinderelephant (Peter's Picture Book of the Year 2013).

What a busy day Dog is having! After waking up, he goes out to the field to chat to one of his friends, Horse. Then he meets the pigs, and they all have fun rolling about in mud. Now Dog needs to clean up, so he joins the ducks in the nearby pond. Splash! After his swim, Dog dries off by running after Cat in a game of chase. They pass their owner Vicky, who is quietly enjoying a picnic on the grass. Soon it is Dog's turn to eat, so he dashes into the kitchen for his dinner. Phew! After such a busy day, no wonder Dog is ready for bed. Goodnight, Dog!

Young readers will be kept busy, too, as they turn the pages of this exciting padded book. With appealing images to look at and talk about, it is a wonderful aid to learning that little ones will want to return to again and again. The book is built to last, with sturdy board pages that will stand up to repeated use.
