

Seventeen

Matthew Whittet

Key Sales Information

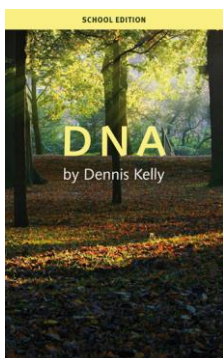

- Production: Lyric Hammersmith, West London, 4 March-8 April 2017
- Timeless coming-of-age themes
- Unique production where 17-year-olds are played by actors in their 70s

Seventeen is set in that time after the end of the last day of school, but just before everyone moves on. It's about the cusp of adulthood, the cusp of complete change.

Funny, immature, wise and a little bit sad, Seventeen performed by a cast of septuagenarians, will turn our notions of adulthood and adolescence on their head.

Author Bio: Matthew Whittet is a playwright and actor. He graduated from NIDA's acting course. Matthew's writing credits include Cinderella, Old Man (Belvoir); Girl Asleep, Fugitive, School Dance, Big Bad Wolf (Windmill Theatre), and Harbing (Brink Productions).
