A unique and simple guide for how to get started as an actor... WITHOUT having to give up the day job, WITHOUT taking a HUGE loan and three years of your life to go to drama school, and WITHOUT risking facing a life of penury and rejection.

If you're a working actor, drama-school student, someone who wants to become an actor, or simply someone who has a dream and wants to make it a reality, this book is for you. A wonderfully honest, concise and simple book packed with essential tips on embracing an acting career from an author who's practising what she preaches! And all supported by a huge range of interviews with established professional and amateur performers from stage and screen.

- Includes exclusive interviews with performers at different levels of experience, including the CEO of The Actors Centre.
- Author of the popular Networking Know-How business essentials title
- Great coverage and endorsements promised through the network of the author but more importantly the interviewees – already have an interview lined up in Stage.

"I'm Zoe and I'm an actor. Over the last year I've played lead roles and small roles in theatre productions in London, and co-lead roles in short films and one small role in the feature film Carbon Foxes. You can see all this from my CV and Spotlight profile. What you can't see is that just over a year ago, I had done no acting since I was at school (except for one small extra part). I most definitely "wasn't an actor". I didn't even consider myself to be "creative" (I work in tech full time). Well hello, one year ago me – look at me now!" Zoe is also a networking expert and author of Networking Know How
