

THE CHINA MAZE

A TONY UNDERWOOD MYSTERY

JOSEPH CLYDE (AKA GEORGE WALDEN)

* A new compact thriller with undervalued midranking MI5 agent Tony Underwood chasing a DAESH sympathiser

* A British Jihadi deadset on blowing up the world

* 'Realistic and gripping.' Jung Chang

* Based on George Walden's intimate knowledge of Chinese politics and Whitehall secret service intrigue and class distinctions between MI5 and MI6

Previous praise for Joseph Clyde (George Walden)

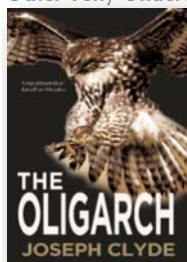

- 'Compelling... deserves to be a best-seller.' Daily Mail
- 'Exciting, horrific, and poignant.' Literary Review
- 'Echoes the best of Len Deighton or John Le Carré.' TLS
- 'Thrilling.' Spectator
- 'Remarkabl[e].' Sunday Express
- 'A page-turner.' Entertainment-focus.co.uk
- 'Fast-moving.' Bookbag.co.uk
- 'Subdued tension throughout... a well-paced thriller with a refreshing sense of realism.' Evening Standard
- 'Unputdownable.' Jonathan Meades

| | |
|------------|--------------------|
| Category | Thriller |
| Nielsen | FH |
| ISBN | 9781783341368 |
| Extent | 324 |
| Price | 8.99 |
| Binding | Paperback Original |
| Dimensions | 198 x 129 mm |
| Languages | English |
| Rights | All |
| Pub Date | 2-Feb-2017 |

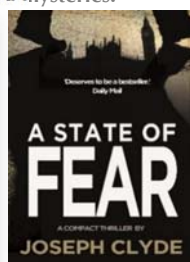

In this new installment of the Tony Underwood series, Tony finds himself on a junket to China as he has become somewhat of a political embarrassment to MI5 after his latest case. Not much is happening and he visits the famous beautiful mummies at the site of the ancient city of Loulan on China's border with Russia. Soon our low-ranking MI5 finds himself sucked into a treacherous new plot with huge consequences for global security.

Joseph Clyde is the pseudonym of George Walden, a former Booker Prize chairman, journalist, diplomat and government minister. He writes and reviews for the Times, Telegraph, Observer and Independent.

Other Tony Underwood mysteries:

9781908096715

9781908096364

Macmillan Distribution Services
tel 01256 329242
orders@macmillan.co.uk
www.macmillandistribution.co.uk

GIBSON
SQUARE

Gibson Square
tel 020 7096 1100
info@gibsonsquare.com
www.gibsonsquare.com

Compass Sales
tel 020 8326 5696
sales@compass-ips.london
compassnewtitles.london
IPG Award Winner